You are the Mad Scientist's Head Lab Assistant, and you want, more than anything else, to be the Mad Scientist and avoid the fate of the previous Head Lab Assistant, who is now only a head.

So you hatch a plot to stage a takeover of the lab.

Unfortunately for you, you don't get to be a Mad Scientist without being a sadistic genius, so you have your work cut out for you against your boss. Besides, the Scientist has this nasty habit of calling you her lab rat, and that can't be anything good. Will you succeed in your goal? Will the rats escape? Will the velociraptor wreak havoc in the lab? Only one way to find out... Choose your own adventure through the Mad Scientist's Lab in your attempt to take over.

Either succeed, or die trying!
