Mr. Beat It Up is a story about love lost and found. Kameesha is in a love marriage with her husband, Grey. She would give anything just to have one sex-filled night with her husband. That is until she finally has enough and decides that two can play that game.

If Grey wants to have fun on the side then so will she. Will Jafar just be her one night only or will he be the Mr. Beat it Up that she needs? Unfortunately Grey is living a double life that Meesha knows nothing about until her new boo has a slip of the tongue and reveals all of his indiscretions. Does he do it on purpose just so that he can have Kameesha all to himself or is it just a really big misunderstanding? Follow Kameesha, Grey, Jade and Jafar with their family and friends in this all out crazy love affair.
