Frogs and flowers, chickens and elephants will be just some of your companions as you practice your number skills with this sparkling collection of rhymes old and new. Specially compiled for adults and young children to enjoy together, One, Two, Skip A Few! features many favorite nursery rhymes, songs and playground chants.

The collection includes the much-loved rhymes "There Were Ten in the Bed" and "One Potato, Two Potato" as well as some lively new ones that are just as much fun. wonderfully complemented by Roberta Arenson's vibrant collage illustrations, this collection brings together simple rhymes that will help small children practice counting both forwards and backwards, moving into addition and subtraction...and ending with some tricky ones that multiply!.
