A village is being terrorised by a fire-breathing dragon. It steals young maidens and eats the young men who come after it. Ten year old Andrew is not afraid of the beast. One morning, he grabs his sword and sets off to fight the dragon and save his village. 'Cos we all know that when adults are too scared to do anything, it's up to the kids to save the day. A fun, rhyming adventure story for kids ages 6 years and up.
