Pastor D.W. Shaw is a married man with a church filled with whores.

He becomes tempted to sleep with the different women. Pastor's Shaw's wife of twelve years has stopped sexing him as often as she had in the past. Temptation hits, and he doesn't know how to fight them. Pastor Shaw describes some of his sexual encounters with these women in his congregation. The hot, vivacious young beautiful Chili Murray has a run in with the Pastor that changes both of their lives. Chili's Father, deacon Murray, isn't happy with the lovebirds being together. Deacon Murray comes to Pastor's Shaw's home and does the unthinkable. Pastor Shaw and Chili falls deeply in love, but Chili has some problems in her home. Chili lives with demons. Pastor Shaw feels that marrying Chili is the answer. Is Chili the sweet innocent girl that she portrays or is this all an act.
