The second of the AM13 Outbreak Shorts series: Katie did not sign up for this when she went to medical school! She is now working as a nurse at one of the specialist medical facilities set up for AM13. She doesn't want the humdrum of dealing with sick, dying patients every day, she wants to be the hero who finds a cure! As the lockdown starts, and more people with the virus are brought in, can she keep control of the situation?
