Aaron of Jerusalem wants to find and protect the Nazareth Gospel, but dangerous enemies want to destroy it. One of them is a murderous arsonist, and some half-dozen suspects warily stalk each other. The most threatened women and children seek Aaron's protection, including his own adopted son. Thousands of encamped innocents are unaware that the Roman cavalry approaches to destroy them all. Aaron and his new friends must save them and preserve the Nazareth Gospel's secrets before all is lost....
