Witchcraft is a work and form of art that has been misunderstood for many years now. Most people are in fear that a witch is going to come after them and force them into doing things against their will. While there are some who may do this, and this is the reason for the bad reputation of other witches, this is not the norm. In fact, practising witchcraft can be a beautiful way to let your energy out and to discover who you are as a person. This guidebook is going to take some time to look at witchcraft and help you as a beginner to get started.

What Is Witchcraft all about? Chapter 1 starts out with a basic introduction to what witchcraft is. It talks about how beautiful it is and how the follower can really start to help themselves and others in the process. The history of witchcraft has been around for centuries and chapter 2 will look at how the ideas concerning witchcraft have changed over time to become what they are today. The Beauty Of Practising Witchcraft

Chapter 3 is great for explaining how to get started with witchcraft. This is not an easy art form to get in to and many people will get frustrated because they feel they are not making the progress as quickly as they should.

This chapter discusses this in a bit more detail to help those beginners who may be having issues finding their inner energy. Chapter 4 has a couple of common spells that you can use in order to let your magic out when ready. Magic is not always a part of witchcraft but those who do decide to include it do so in order to really expand their energy. Here Is A Preview Of What You'll Learn... What Is Witchcraft?
