Now in their second editions, these stories help children ages 3-8 learn to solve social problems effectively and compassionately. Because the stories are interactive, kids are encouraged to consider several different ways of solving problems. If children don't like how the stories turn out, they can go back and try another method. Jenny doesn't like it when Eduardo calls her names. But what can she do? Readers can decide. If the first suggestion doesn't work, they can try again.
