Myrtle Greenburg just wants to marry a man she loves, not a man who just happens to live close to her. But in an 1860s town out west, all people seem to care about is getting married as soon as possible. And then Finley Bale returns, a boy who had left for the east to get his doctorate, and is now a grown man and full-fledged doctor. Myrtle is more than eager to give this handsome young man a chance to earn her affections, but as accidents and tragedies occur in her small town, a dark secret of Finley's come to light. Find out more in book 1 of this Western frontier romance series.
