The Planetary Union, the bastion of democracy in the galaxy, is on the verge of collapse. The militaristic Salyarian Empire under its new Emperor, Mithras, has laid waste to every fleet sent against it and stands poised to seize victory. Even the super-human powers of the esper have done little to turn the tide. On the edge of explored space, a single ship flees the carnage of the front line. With enemies closing in and spies plotting among their ranks, its commanding officer orders the vessel into the dark unknowns in pursuit of what is believed by most to be nothing more than an old traders' tale in a desperate attempt to save his people. In the darkness they are waiting...
