Alexis Ferguson has been abandoned by every supernatural loved one in her life, and she can't even remember why. In fact, she keeps having memory lapses. She's sure that finding out why is the key to finding the others. Meanwhile, she must live with her family, pretending to be human. She tries to ignore her basic paranormal needs, and begins to waste away. Alexis nearly takes out her entire family at a holiday meal. She knows she needs to take care of herself, but can't find the motivation until another supernatural steps in, concerned for her well-being. He's gorgeous, so what could go wrong? Other than the fact that he's a werewolf ...and her teacher. Silent Bite works as #3.5 because it takes place during the time of Forgotten – during the time Alexis was having multiple memory lapses.
