~~ Sexy, emotional, often funny, always messy, true love romance ~~ Zoe Leland has an apartment in Hollywood and a full tuition scholarship to UCLA. Chemical engineering is her ticket out of the crazy house she grew up in. Her mother taught her to marry well, but Zoe has other ideas. Still, a little partying is fine, she is in Hollywood after all. If she becomes friends with rising star Noah Preston what's the harm in that? When things between them turn into something more, Zoe is torn between her own dreams and his. She's caught up in a life where she doesn't fit and her goals don't have a place in Noah's world. They'll have to learn to belong in each other's worlds if they want to belong to each other. Follow Jenn, Bree, Zoe and Jessica as they navigate the glitz and shine of Hollywood. Can be read as a standalone. This series has real emotion, hard won happy endings, and smoking hot romance.
