Pope Francis cares deeply about the health and happiness not only of today's families, but also of tomorrow's families. The pope continues to keep the theme of the family in the forefront through his speeches, homilies, addresses, and writings. Published in cooperation with the Libreria Editrice Vaticana, the Vatican Publishing House, this original collection brings Pope Francis's teachings on the importance of family into focus in an elegant way.

It covers themes of love and marriage, the promise of young people, and the vocation and mission of the family. The audio edition of this book can be downloaded via Audible.
