He's a wolf shifter, pack guardian to an ancient mafia family. She's just discovered she's the estranged daughter of the Lupone family boss, the oldest vampire coven and the wolves' greatest foes. This love match is definitely not made in heaven. Dante de la Bocca crosses the world to watch over his mate each night during her shift in a crappy biker dive bar. The moment he heard Jules Lupone was returning, he knew for sure that this time, he was getting his second chance. He would not let his mate get away. He'd waited far too long. Lifetimes. But the vampire Cade, psychic underboss to the Lupone family, also has designs on Jules. Mating her would advance his plans to take over the mafia coven. Jules just lost her mother and her future. She can't afford to keep the house she grew up in or her tuition fees with the lousy tips from the bar. The last thing she needs is two hot, arrogant jocks making their move. And she isn't afraid to tell them to take a hike. Except her body trembles when one comes close. And the other exerts an other-worldly pull over every thought in her head. She may not have a choice in what happens next.

Moonshine Alpha is a full length standalone with a fairly spicy level of romantic heat, no cliffhanger and a happy ending at last. Book 2 in the series is Cade's story Bloodlust Alpha.
