Lawrence Fyre and Marin Strang aren't like other people. He is the eccentric owner of failing Sargasso Books in the Brighton Lanes. She is an ex-Jehovah's Witness and isolated Spanish teacher.

If they live together in his illegal, beautiful, rope laddered lock-up, can their love overcome their losses? Original, sexy, very funny and deeply moving. An author in complete control of a number of unforgettable characters and emotional highs and lows, Jenny Morton Potts leaves the reader breath, and wanting more.
