What if working together causes too many emotions? Tamara has plans to open her very own catering business. It's been a lifelong dream of hers and she's determined to make it a reality. When on one of her jobs, she meets billionaire Kyle Santori, she's not sure how to react. Kyle Santori is a successful business owner, his casinos being his most known and most valuable assets. He's a man who knows what he wants in life and he isn't afraid to take risks to get it. Tamara has a history with Kyle, and even though it was only for a small amount of time, the feelings she once had for him are still there. She has to work together with him, without letting her emotions take over. But it has been a long time since their last meeting, and back then she was a completely different person.

Is it all a coincidence that she meets Kyle here? And will their emotions for each other still be as strong? Each book of this series can be read as a standalone story.
