Deon Jerome has it all -- fame and fortune, thanks to his pro football career. The only problem is that his agent has booked him to do an advertisement for a big sponsor riding a horse and Deon is terrified of the beasts. When he can't get out of it, he turns to his secret lover Truck, a big animal vet, for help. It's not easy having a relationship with a deep in the closet football player and Truck is more than willing to have Deon around for the weekend so they can have some time together.

Can he help Deon get over his fear of horses? And could that lead to overcoming other fears as well? This story is also available in the Horsing Around anthology.
